“She also “ is the contemporary photographic essay by Jorge Piccini, which renews the original proposal to include the photographer's ladies protagonists, with the final image of his creation. The paper challenges an old but prestigious theory , incorporating the author of the work of art in its own creation ... For the mystery and the most hidden of each new image, produce and reproduce, showing infinite and original way the portrait of his own scene. Jorge Piccini, graduated in graphic design and photographer as hobby, lives and Works in the city of San Carlos de Bariloche, Patagonia Argentina. He came to Bariloche from the city of Santa fe in 2002. Graphic designer teacher in highschool and in college. Simultaneously director, edition and contents of the digital magazine Bex Magazine. He has exposed and has made essays, giving talks and workshops in Argentina, Chile and Ecuador. His passion for books took him to dedicate his time to the edition and design of digital photography books and also printed ones, to the divulgation of latin photography and all related to making photography projects.
