Game, Set, Love: Katie & Dragan T. J. Connors

"I don't want to be your toy, I want you to love me."

Newbie journalist Katie is excited: Her newspaper is sending her to London to report on the Wimbledon tennis championships. This could be the big career breakthrough she so desires.

Serbian tennis star Dragan is one of the big favourites for the men's singles title. He would do anything to win Wimbledon and make tennis history.

When the two meet, sparks fly.

But will their ambitions kill the sparks?

Katie has always put her career over her private life. Instead of going out partying with friends and having fun, she's been all about work.

Dragan has never committed to a relationship before but dated a seemingly endless string of beautiful girls. None of whom truly meant anything to him. He only ever really loved tennis.

But there's more to life than work and success. A lesson Katie and Dragan still have to learn.

Game, Set, Love is the titillating tale of how Katie and Dragan fight to overcome all the obstacles on their way to happiness.

Their journey takes them from the most famous tennis tournament in the world - Wimbledon - to Monte-Carlo, to Katie's small hometown and to New York City.

Game, Set, Love is an exquisite romance telling the bitter-sweet love story of two people who are meant to be together against all odds ... or are they?
