Korean Grammar for International Learners : Workbook Ho-bin;Hong, Kyong-pyo;Chang, Suk-in Im
From Introduction - There is a considerable difference between first-language education and second-language education; between teaching Korean as a mother tongue and teaching Korean as a foreign language. Teaching the Korean grammatical system is essential to systematizing the language learning process because all words have both lexical properties and grammatical properties and it results in smaller gaps between language realities and language norms. We have edited this book to focus on the presentation of grammar in actual, real life situations. (Description by http-mart)
