Stephanie suddenly had a sick feeling in her stomach. How would James react when she told him about her mother? Although she knew he wouldn't hold her accountable for her mother's sins, she had a nagging feeling that it would somehow change his opinion of her. And how could she explain it all? Start with the facts. "My mother has been arrested for murdering my father."

James chuckled. "So just an ordinary day, really."

Stephanie was silent.

In this, the third short novel in the series, Stephanie finds herself facing some challenges that make her question herself.
