África. Cazadores de gloria (Spanish Edition) H. Lanvers

En 1825, Tom Grant y un grupo de aventureros ingleses descubren la Ciudad Perdida de Zimbabwe, la de las calles empedradas en oro. Pero para poder tomar sus tesoros deberán enfrentar al temible Imperio Monomatapa, aquel descrito por tantos exploradores desde tiempos inmemoriales.

Con el botín a cuestas y junto a zulúes y bosquimanos, una expedición a lo más profundo de África los lleva hacia otro misterio -cuyas implicancias ha descubierto la arqueología hace sólo diez años- que involucra a una de las míticas tribus perdidas de Israel: la ciudad-fortaleza de los judíos africanos. La misión que allí asumen Grant y sus amigos los guía esta vez hasta la lejana y exótica Etiopía, en custodia de un tesoro aun más valioso: el Arca de la Alianza. Y nuevas aventuras y peligros los acecharán en el camino, tanto por mar como por tierra.

En el sur, mientras tanto, Shaka Zulú, el legendario rey-guerrero, amigo de Tom Grant, sigue transformando a su ejército, con innovadoras estrategias, en una imparable máquina de combate. Pero en su Harén Real de cinco mil mujeres no todo es armonía y un grupo de nobles zulúes atenta contra su vida y lo hiere de gravedad. De regreso por las tierras del gran Shaka, Grant es convocado en su ayuda.

Batallas colosales, intrigas palaciegas, ardientes romances: la épica de la Nación Zulú en su encuentro con el Imperio Británico logra que, sin buscarlo, Tom Grant y el gran rey Shaka lleven sus leyendas más allá de lo creíble. Y se conviertan, a fuerza de coraje, en verdaderos cazadores de gloria.

H. Lanvers, a quien muchos llaman "el Wilbur Smith argentino", produjo un gran fenómeno editorial con sus primeras novelas de la saga "África", cuatro best sellers leídos por más de 300.000 lectores sólo en la Argentina.
