It's the eve of a Congressional budget battle, and all through the House, all the pundits are spinning and so is a...stripper 'round her pole...

Natalie Hayes thinks she has her hands full. She's been charged with planning a staff Christmas party, on a yacht, featuring a ballet troupe. If that wasn't complicated enough, her feelings for her congressman boss have become, well, complicated. Things go from bad to worse when a stripper shows up at the party instead of the Snow Queen. Mayhem ensues, putting Natalie's gift for spin to the test. With her boss's reputation at stake, as well as her job, can Natalie undo this scandal or will dirty politics triumph again?

From writer Amanda Brice comes a very timely, romantic, and comedic spin on the perpetual power plays on Capitol Hill.
