The Common Sense Guide to School Law for Texas Coaches James R. Raup

This portable, quick reference guide is the first ever on School Law for Texas Coaches. Written by experienced school attorney and recognized writer, Jim Raup, it provides coaches information about the employment relationship with their school, reassignment, compensation, liability, athletes' safety and many other topics. Raup, who coached high school baseball teams to the UIL State Tournament three times, knows his subject and knows his readers. Though more people call him "Coach" than by his first name, he dedicates this book "to those whose real first name is 'Coach,' with best wishes and good luck in all of the seasons to come."
