David Clemetson, Cathay-Ann Clemetson

In the building of any structure, the correct foundation is important to its viability. In Essential Biblical Components for Building a Strong Financial House, David and Cathay-Ann explore the importance of basic biblical financial principles that will equip and prepare you to build a house that stands and endures the test of time and the trials of this life. This book is filled with scriptural discoveries that will change the way you think about your money. The authors not only examine the giving of tithes and first fruit offering, but deal with proper designation and share God's original intent and order in the care of his servants. God has planned for the prosperity of his people in this life. He has provided a system that is guaranteed to work if we obey him. Only by returning to godly foundations will we experience the financial freedom that we so desire.
