“Sexuality isn't black and white, Nathan. It's a spectrum that can defy all attempts at labeling it.”

Nathan has it all—at least that's what he thought. He's worked his ass off his whole life to build an enviable career as an investment banker, and now he's finally been given the big-time promotion he's been coveting since he moved to NYC. But when he doesn't have a single soul to call on to share in his big news, Nathan starts to wonder if his priorities need reorganizing.

Determined to set things right and actually start living his life—tonight—Nathan wanders into a hot and steamy nightclub and discovers that the list of things he's been missing out on is much longer than he ever could have imagined...
