Miss Me Not Tiffany King

From USA Today Bestselling author Tiffany King

Everyone at some point has probably done something they wish they could take back. Madison Hanson's past mistakes have made her feel like a shadow. Her grades suck, her social life is non-existent and her home life isn't much better. Just when she thought things couldn't get any worse, the sudden and tragic death of a fellow student forces Madison to reevaluate everything she thought she believed in.

Fate intervenes in the form of Dean Jackson, a popular "Mr. Everything" at school whose life is the polar opposite of Madison's. What starts as a simple tutoring session blossoms into an unlikely relationship, proving that opposites do sometimes attract. With Dean's help, Madison discovers a new life outside of the darkness she has cloaked herself in, and the power of forgiveness, acceptance, caring and love.
