He's making it hot down in The Big Easy.

Abigail Prescott is a curvy woman who's never had much luck in the romance department. A disastrous breakup with her abusive ex sends her running all the way down to the southern heat of New Orleans. With her two best friends by her side, she is determined to have a fresh start and focus on anything other than men for a little while, there's just one problem with her plan—Jake.

The second her supremely handsome real estate agent shakes her hand she knows she's in trouble. With his charming wit and keen intelligence he's a true alpha male who gets what he wants, and what he wants is her.

Abbey is swept up by the sudden romance, but not so much that she doesn't notice the discrepancies in Jake's stories. However, with one charismatic grin from him all her doubts are forgotten...until a more dangerous part of him rears its large, feral head.

Will Jake be able to let go of the secrets he's been concealing before he loses her forever? Can Abbey get over the pain of her past and let someone new into her life, or is she just repeating a pattern of dating dangerous men? Unable to hide from each other any longer, their past and present come crashing violently together when a mysterious benefactor forces Abbey to organize an opulent charity ball for Hurricane Katrina victims.

This is the first book in the New Orleans Bears series, it is a standalone story that can be read separately. Definitely no cliffhangers and always a HEA! This is a story that can only be told with explicit love scenes so for mature shifter lovers only.
