Suicide Loveletter A. T. Cross

Tommy is a clean-cut bookworm, still living with his parents and convinced soulmates aren't merely a myth. His best friend Kaz is a wannabe rock star in search of the edge. When the two are offered a pair of tickets to Vegas, Kaz drags the cerebral virgin out into the world to teach him about grime and try to get him laid. Staggering along city streets and careening down the freeway in the middle of the night, their odyssey becomes a reckless tailspin of romanticism as the two examine the dream of love, the reality of sex, and the theory of rock 'n' roll.
