The Beast In Us (The Beast And Me) (Volume 3) D. S. Wrights

After several days of coma, I have finally woken up but I am not the same. Slowly, I, Meg, am trying to put the pieces of me back together, alone and separated from Jay. My new situation has changed my perspective on everything. I will never be the same. Then, after countless days of being apart, Jay and I finally are reunited but everything has changed. Everything but one definite plan: escape from White's clutches. Whom can I trust? Whose truth is reality. In the end, there is just one thing we can rely on: the beast in us. With The Beast In Us the series returns to its first narrator Meghan Singer, who has to face new threads, new decisions and one fact that will change her life forever. Please beware that this book is not suited for minors and also includes dark and disturbing themes as well as explicit sexual interactions.
