Blood, Sweat and Oil Conrad A. Carrasco

"Blood Sweat and Oil" Is based on true events portrayed by Cameron Presley. A man who thought that all you needed in life was your faith, the love of a good woman and your family. Little did he know that the oil industry was exempt to that rule. After relocating his family to the heart of the oil country, he would immediately find out, that with success came brutal betrayal. Leaving him to question the very person that he was, and the people closest to him. Cameron would find himself in a battle to preserve his company, himself and his family. But maintaining who you are is a difficult task when being pushed to your breaking point.
