Healing Chronic Lyme Disease: LEARN HOW TO FIND A LYME LITERATE DOCTOR AND FINALLY GET A REAL DIAGNOSIS Ryan Medford

Are you sick and tired of getting the runaround from doctors telling you there is nothing wrong with you yet you still feel incredibly symptomatic?

Are you done with doctors telling you that you don't need further treatment options? Furthermore, are you absolutely sick of friends and family members telling you that you don't look sick and that maybe it's "all in your head"?

Get real advice from a real Chronic Lyme Disease patient.

For years I suffered from a wide spectrum of symptoms. I endured the stress and angst of researching symptoms since the countless number of doctors and tests I had performed came up short. I experimented with various expensive treatment options on my own. I live in a place where Lyme Disease is not commonly understood and where the CDC considers Lyme Disease to be extremely rare, despite the growing number of new confirmed cases every week.

My life was put on hold and I want to do everything I possibly can to help you get your life back on track. I have been where you are and I want to use my god-given talents to help you get to where I am today.

The first thing I want to help you do is get the proper type of medical doctor who can help you get a diagnosis and properly create a personalized treatment plan that can help you restore your life from Lyme Disease and any other co-infections that are present along with it.

Here is what you will learn in this book:

- What is Chronic Lyme Disease?
- What is a Lyme Literate Medical Doctor (LLMD)?
- Why Do I Need a LLMD?
- How Do I Find a LLMD?
- What Can I Expect During My First Visit?
- How Can I Really Determine If I Have Lyme Disease?
- What Are Co-Infections and Why Do They Matter?

I will touch on the history of Lyme Disease, the political battles that patients experience, the nightmare experiences trying to find a diagnosis, and the social struggles that we deal with as Lyme Disease patients.
