This new casebook is designed to introduce property law to twenty-first century law students. It covers the standard property topics with a blend of familiar and modern cases selected to appeal to contemporary students; it also includes sections on intellectual property and environmental law. Like other books in the Interactive Casebook series, the accompanying electronic version allows students immediate access to the full text of cited cases, statutes, articles, and other materials in the Westlaw database. In addition, the electronic version includes extensive photographs, maps, diagrams, and audio clips that help students understand the case materials.
