Hermes, the Child & the Mother: Archetypes in Federico Fellini's Dream-Work (Psychology of Emotions, Motivations and Actions) Gabriel Cavaglion

This book is written from both a psychological and artistic viewpoint in order to examine Fellini and his unorthodox yet extraordinary contribution to film. Fellini deals with another reality entirely, mocking social establishment as a whole. This book thus moves from pathos to logos, from Dionysian emotional and experiential chaos to Apollonian abstract and formal rationalism.
