A missing teenage girl. A woman looking for her birth parents. A destructive letter.

It's 1999. Valerie Urniak and Jacob Harris are approaching their 25th anniversary. Only Jacob has finally had enough. He wants Valerie to stop investigating cases. He's tired of always being worried about his wife's safety.

When Vince Cardonza, now a private investigator, asks her to consult on a case, Valerie refuses to do it without Jacob's approval. But Valerie knows that her compassionate husband will withdraw his edict once he learns a missing teenage girl is involved.

Valerie also can't refuse helping her former sister-in-law in her attempt to find her birth parents. There could be no danger in that.

On the eve of the new millennium, Valerie finds a document that threatens to turn the last twenty-five years of her life into one long lie...

Then something happens that is so horrific, everything else pales in comparison.
