Jesus is the true light. He is the light and the way.

This book explores the perplexing person of Jesus, it pays tribute to the King and lays the conditions of worship at the helm and atmosphere of a broken heart in a the life of a brooding man burning for the touch of the quenching living water.

This book is a roller coaster that transcends your senses and endows the sensation of God in your very essence as it squeezes your insecurities out and leaves you bare, naked, face-to-face with God Himself...
