After the most difficult time in her life, Lucia is finally happy and excited to plan her wedding to Jacob. She feels that with her sister safely locked away, nothing could stop her blessings from coming forth. But will an unknown steal her joy yet again?

Jacob is dealing with the death of an old friend and all of the secrets that he left behind. What he uncovers though may jeopardize his relationship with the love of his life and cause the church his mother now leads to fall to scandal. Will the information he has help or hurt everyone in his life?

Gwendolyn is set on revenge. She feels slighted by her biological family and wants what's hers. She's married to Benny, but has no love for him or their child. They are a means to an end in her eyes. Will her quest for revenge have the results that she desires? Or will the Holy Spirit heal her wounded heart and unite her with her family?

These questions will be answered and more as the drama continues to unfold for the March family and their friends.
