Priestess Miriam & The Voodoo Spiritual Temple Toni Costonie

The first ever biography of a living New Orleans voodoo queen. Provides a rare glimpse into the secretive world of voodoo from an insiders perspective.

In this informative book, Toni Costonie gives readers both a very personal look at Voodoo and a concise, well-researched history of Voodoo.

The personal look is seen through the eyes of Mary Robin Williams – a Voodoo Priestess known to many as Priestess Miriam Chamani. Priestess Miriam's readings, advice and Voodoo solutions to personal problems are sought by many through the world. Her devotees and clients include many well-known celebrities. Some clients come from as far away as Japan, where she has a large following of Voodoo believers. She has been featured in many U.S. and foreign publications and is often sought as a consultant for movies and television productions containing a Voodoo element.

Through numerous interviews with Priestess Miriam, Toni Costonie is able to masterfully weave together and tell in Priestess Miriam's own words her somewhat autobiographical story of how she was lead from the cotton fields of Mississippi to the Spiritual Church in Chicago and ultimately to Voodoo.
