Not just the Destination (England) Peter John Smith

Living for four years in Oxford, England, the author had much opportunity to travel through England and Europe. During his travels the beauty of the land and villages was seen not only on arrival, but also during the journey. The title 'Not Just the Destination' relates to the journey as well as the destination. 'Not Just the Journey (England)' is the first of two books covering his time in England. The second 'Not Just the Destination (Europe)' is in the writing stage and, when released will compliment this book and complete an amazing four years in that location. The book covers his journey to England and his travels discovering just a little of the beauty that England has to offer. In reading this book, the author hopes the readers will be inspired to take the risk and discover for themselves the wonderful joy of not just the destination but also experiencing the pleasure of getting there.
