What began as a grandmother's simple desire to create a lasting memory for her grandchildren has resulted in this charming collection of faith based poetry. Though not a children's book, it reinforces those bits of wisdom learned at "Nana's" knee. With an easy flowing style we are invited to explore many of life's questions, challenges and joys. "There to teach the grace of God to children at my knee", a line from the very first poem, inspired the title and purpose of this book. . . a sharing of faith. Kathy D Peters now invites you to read, enjoy, and share her first book with those who mean the most to you.
