Space Odyssey: Beyond the Universe 2016 V Bertolaccini

A newly invented voyager explores the deepest depths of the universe, and leaves space and time after a deadly entity starts killing them all, and in the depths of a new minding-bending universe encounter something deadly of supernatural origins, hidden there since the dawn of time.

In the first half, Space Odyssey: Beyond the Universe (Part I), a voyager is created and launched to explore the deepest depths of space.

In the depths of a colossal void explorers encounter something of unknown origins that has been hidden there since the dawn of creation. A hideous devil-like presence starts killing them to get the voyager, which it could use to destroy the universe, and they leave space and time to escape.

In the second half, Space Odyssey: Beyond the Universe (Part II), they go on a mind-bending trip through an outer universe and hurtle out of a colossal black hole, at the center of space, into a mind-bending universe where strange and mysterious things of unknown origins exist.

In its depths they encounter something of mind-blowing origins hidden away on a mysterious world since the dawn of time when they trace a strange energy source to something, and discover new mind-bending phenomena everywhere, and find far more than they bargained for when they discover it is of supernatural origins.
