The Legal Guide to Nonprofit Mergers & Joint Ventures Jerald A. Jacobs

Written by esteemed nonprofit expert Jerald Jacobs whose firm has been involved in mergers of nonprofits in virtually every state, this book provides legal background on the topic of combinations between nonprofit entities. It offers simple, straightforward advice on how to approach combinations of nonprofits and a list of things that should not be overlooked.

The book is not intended to replace experienced professionals, but instead help organize and focus the work of individuals responsible for forming a combination of nonprofit organizations. The appendix contains the statutes regulating legal combinations of nonprofits in 12 key states where the majority of nonprofits are likely incorporated.
