In this delightful Christmas love story, Deputy Shawna Mallory finds Billy McCrae - a runaway boy sleeping in a mound of snow with an anxious puppy guarding him. He's a sad child surviving a terrible existence until she puts a stop to it and becomes his foster parent. She's drawn to the snarky kid and just wants his life to be happier, his and the stray mutt who won't leave his side. Not that the boy cares about the dog... or her. Then she meets his father, the one who abandoned the boy when he was five.

John Reid McCrae wants only one thing in his life to make it worth living. Years ago he'd lost his son to a bitter wife and now his goal is to get Billy back. He'll do whatever it takes, no matter who gets hurt. Until he meets the town's stunning deputy. Can he put his needs ahead of her happiness?
