Lord, He Went: Remembering William H. Hinson Stanley R. Copeland

William H. Hinson (1936-2004) was an outspoken leader in the United Methodist denomination. The author of several books, including The Power of Holy Habits and Solid Living in a Shattered World, Hinson co-founded the Confessing Movement of The United Methodist Church and was serving as its president at the time of his untimely death. Hinson's close friend and associate for many years, Stanley R. Copeland collects remembrances of Dr. Hinson and discusses his influence within The United Methodist Church.
