Magic, Pretended Miracles, and Remarkable Natural Phenomena American Sunday-School Union

This volume is evidently written by an author of good information, and by no means inferior logical power. It treats a subject of considerable difficulty with great judgment, and goes far to demolish the whole theory of post-apostolic miracles. It is pre-eminently a book for the times, and will aid the growing light on the huge imposture of the Man of Sin.

—Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, Vol. 26
