Manifestation Pathways: Letting Your Good Be There... When You Get There! Richard Dotts

Do you know that each time you ask for something, no matter what it may be, there exists an infinite number of pathways through which it can come into your life? And do you know that since there are infinite pathways to your good, things are always yours in the moment you ask for them, with no exceptions? Once you understand and apply this Universal truth in your own life, then all fears and uncertainties surrounding your manifestations melt away. The question becomes not whether something will eventually happen in your life, but when it will happen. Manifestations become as simple as knowing what you want, planting it into your future reality and letting your good be there... when you get there! Join bestselling author and spiritual explorer Richard Dotts in Manifestation Pathways, where he explains the fascinating science behind the manifestation pathways which are always available to us... no matter our current circumstances or what we ask for. In yet another illuminating look at these spiritual laws of manifestation, Richard draws on modern science and ancient spiritual teachings to explain why there are truly “no accidents” in this Universe, and why in the moment we ask for something (no matter what it may be)... the Universe has already identified an infinite number of manifestation pathways to fulfill our good. The key to fast and effective manifestations then involves the simple steps of (1) identifying, and (2) traversing one of these manifestation pathways that may initially be invisible to us. As Richard puts it, the biggest cause of delayed manifestations comes from stubbornly insisting that our good is delivered to us through a particular channel or method. Because of our continued insistence on a single pathway to the exclusion of everything else, we limit our own possibilities and close the doors to all the other ways through which our desires can be manifested in our lives. When we realize how an infinite number of pathways always stand between us and our desired good, manifestations become as simple as recognizing the paths of least resistance and then traversing them. Very often, some of the fastest and most direct pathways will be invisible from our limited human perspectives. Recognizing our paths of least resistance is not an intellectual activity. It does not require a weighing of pros and cons, or a consideration of which action is the “best” for us to take next. As Richard explains in Manifestation Pathways, recognizing our paths of least resistance is a “feeling” activity that involves using our inner senses. Imagine having a desire for something and then immediately intuiting (knowing) what the path of least resistance should be for that desire. When you allow the Universe to lead you in this manner and unfold the manifestation pathway of least resistance to you, then life becomes as effortless as knowing what you want, planting it in your future reality and letting your good be there when you get there... every single time! This book will show you the practical techniques to make it happen in your life.
