An affair is the last thing on Brian McLean's mind when his wife introduces him to Veronica Page, a beautiful young ballerina. With a successful career, a house in the north Jersey suburbs and a perfect family, Brian has his life on auto-pilot. But everything spins out of control with the first kiss, which?along with every subsequent encounter?is secretly observed and recorded by Jonathan Bergen, Veronica's unscrupulous billionaire sponsor. Within a month, Brian is diagnosed with a deadly disease, permanently separated from Veronica, and estranged from his family. Leaving New Jersey he heads south, preferring a lonely, hopeless odyssey to bringing further shame on his family. But Bergen believes Brian is in possession of a rare diamond Veronica wore during one of their trysts. The diamond is the only thing that connects Bergen to a murder, and he will kill again to get it back.

As Brian travels across the country, a series of misfortunes leaves him penniless and living on the streets, unaware he is being stalked by a hired killer on a mission to retrieve the lost stone...and eliminate a loose end named Brian McLean.
