Alfa Romeo sports cars have been made in many permutations since 1955. This is a guide to the marque, analyzing individual models, explaining their evolution bringing in related sports-racing models, and the model that started as the Duetto in 1966 and expired as the 2000 Spider Veloce in 1993. Part of the "Essential" series on classic cars, this book also provides complete specifications, performance data, production changes and competition history.
