A comprehensive reference that defines all of the most widely used management and human resource terms. Thoroughly cross-referenced, the dictionary's more than 8,000 entries cover the entire spectrum of traditional and most current usages, from "A" to "zoning price". Included are terms from over 30 business areas, viewed from a variety of business contexts; foreign words and phrases that are part of our language; and commonly used acronyms and abbreviations. Whether you are a newcomer or a seasoned business professional, you will find the content and format handy and easy-to-use. Dr. Jerry M. Rosenberg is a professor at Rutgers University's Business School, a noted lexicographer, the primary business consultant to the Oxford English Dictionary, and the author of over 25 books.
