Eager to stay away from the crazy ways of the other college kids, Julie introduces Freya to her brother, the handsome and brooding Kellan who seems to be taken with her immediately. When Kellan invites Freya over to their family home for the weekend she can't believe her eyes at the size and grandeur of the place... and their secret fortune isn't the only thing they are hiding...

Kellan has another secret besides his families fortune, and he believes that Freya is his one true mate. With his family line dying out will she give him what he so desperately needs... a heir and a continuation of his legacy? With a red hot passion burning between them surely it's only a matter of time before Freya gives into her lust... but is she ready to be mated for life?
