When the unthinkable happens, John—the son of a Norman lord—undertakes a journey to fight for the lives of his parents and his people. But it's not just any quest. The malevolent Lord Gair demands the legendary Holy Grail, and John knows that Lord Gair will stop at nothing to achieve his goals.

All along, John has been making sacrifices for the freedom he seeks. But before the end, John must confront Lord Gair and stop him, before it's too late. But John's true enemy isn't Lord Gair. It's himself.

On an adventure of daring and excitement, John must make an impossible choice. And to do that, he must learn the true price of freedom.
