The Dash for Khartoum G. A. Henty

"[...]Foot one of these days," the sergeant said. Jane looked up at her husband. There was no touch of envy or discontent in his voice. She was about to speak but checked herself. "Which is yours, John?" she asked a moment later, returning to his first remark. "I am sure I could not tell," he said with a laugh. "Babies are mostly pretty much alike, and as these two are just the same age, and just the same size, and have both got gray eyes and light coloured hair—if you can call it hair,—and no noses to speak of, I don't see a pin's point of difference." A month later a small party were assembled in Captain Clinton's [...]".
